

Listening as a way of Life Seminar

Tuesday 4 November 2008

The Old Sessions House
Clerkenwell Green
London EC1R 0NA

Transforming environments:

Ways of involving young children and adults in changing spaces

Programme

- |         |   |
|---------|---|
| 12 noon | Registration  |
| 12.30   | Lunch   |
| 1.30    | IntroductionDwynwen Stepien, Director of the Early Childhood Unit  |
| 1.40    | Looking forward, looking back: involving children and communities in designNicky Road, Consultant, Member of the Young Children's Voices Network(YCVN) Advisory Group |
| 2.10    | Living Spaces - listening to young children and practitioners through the design processAlison Clark, Roehampton University, Member of the YCVN Advisory Group        |
| 2.40    | Group discussion  |
| 3.00    | Tea and coffee break  |
| 3.15    | Transforming environments: a European perspectiveIlse Ziess-Lawrence, Ina Kinder Garten, Berlin   |
| 3.45    | Transforming environments: a UK perspectiveJulian Grenier, Headteacher of Kate Greenaway Nursery School and Children's Centre, London                                 |
| 4.15    | Panel discussion  |
| 4.30    | Close   |